Marshall welcomes Skylab astronauts; Monday events set

Eight of the nine astronauts who flew aboard Skylab will meet with Marshall team members at 12:30 p.m. Monday in Morris Auditorium as part of 30th anniversary events celebrating America's first space station. The astronauts also will attend the 2003 Von Braun Forum at 2 p.m. at the University of Alabama in Huntsville. The forum will feature discussions of Skylab science and missions, and the rescue of the station. The events are free and Marshall team members are encouraged to attend. For a complete list of events, times and locations, see "Inside Marshall," the current issue of the Marshall Star, or call 544-2030.

Participants wanted for Nov. 11 Veterans Day parade. See 'Inside Marshall' or call 544-0090

Safety & Mission Success Week set for Marshall team

NASA has designated Nov. 17-21 as "Safety & Mission Success Week" to focus on issues identified in the Columbia Accident Investigation Board report. All Marshall team members, civil service and contractor, are to read the report and understand its applicability to their specific work environment. Every Marshall team member will receive a copy of the report no earlier than Wednesday. Team members who would like to begin reviewing the report can go to <http://www.caib.us/news/report/volume1/default.html>.
